13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: An influential childless couple provides food and shelter for Elisha whenever he journeyed through their town. The prophet was grateful for their generosity and so he, in turn, foretold the birth of a son to them in the following year. (2 Kings 4:8-11,14-16)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 89)

“For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.”

The promises of the LORD I will sing forever, through all generations my mouth shall proclaim your faithfulness.

For you have said, "My kindness is established forever;" in heaven you have confirmed your faithfulness. Res

Blessed the people who know the joyful shout; in the light of your countenance, O LORD, they walk. At your name they rejoice all the day, and through your justice they are exalted. Res

You are the splendor of their strength, and by your favor our horn is exalted.

For to the LORD belongs our shield, and the Holy One of Israel, our king. Res

Second Reading: When we were baptized we died with Christ and just as Christ was raised from the dead, so too are we now alive in Christ but dead to sin, which should no more have any attraction for us. (Romans 6:3-4, 8-11)

Gospel : The first part of today's Gospel teaches and demands total dedication to our calling as Christ's followers. In the second part, Christ expects His missionaries to be accepted and be well treated.. (Matthew 10: 37-42)
