COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: Moses commanded the people of Israel not to molest strangers or exploit the weaker members of society. This passage reminds us about the commandments of love for one's neighbor. (Exodus 22:20-26)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (PS 18) "I love you, Lord, my strength."

I love you, O LORD, my strength,
O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer. Res

My God, my rock of refuge,
my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold!
Praised be the LORD, I exclaim,
and I am safe from my enemies. Res

The LORD lives and blessed be my rock!
Extolled be God my savior.
You who gave great victories to your king
and showed kindness to your anointed. Res

Second Reading: St. Paul praises his converts for forsaking the worship of false gods so as to become servants of the true and living God. This reading reminds us about the commandments to love the Lord our God. (1 Thessalonians 1-5-10)

Gospel: Jesus sets His seal on the instructions given in both the first and the second readings of today and He teaches that the love of God is barren and incomplete without the love of neighbor. (Matthew 22:34-40)
