COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: Peter quotes from Psalm 16 to show God will not allow His chosen one, Jesus Christ, to experience corruption in the grave. Peter asserts further that Christ's resurrection is the very heart of the Good News. (Acts 2:14, 22-33)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 16)
 "Lord, you will show us the path of life."

Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge; I say to the LORD, "My Lord are you." O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup, you it is who hold fast my lot. Res

I bless the LORD who counsels me; even in the night my heart exhorts me. I set the LORD ever before me; with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Res

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices, my body, too, abides in confidence; because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption. Res

You will show me the path to life, abounding joy in your presence, the delights at your right hand forever. Res

Second Reading: Peter reminds Christians that we are redeemed not by corruptible silver or gold but by the most precious blood of Christ. It is Christ's resurrection that has allowed us to have faith and hope in God. (St. Peter 1:17-21)

Gospel : God's word and the Eucharistic celebration ought to open our eyes and minds daily to meet Christ and to recognize Him in our life's journey. (Luke 24:13-35)
