4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER, YEAR A

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: Peter's hearers felt deeply sorry for unjustly supporting the crucifixion of Christ and having repented for their sins, many accepted baptism.

(Acts 2:14, 36-41)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 23)

“ The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.”

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul. Res.

He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side.
With your rod and your staff
that give me courage. Res

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows. Res

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.. Res

Second Reading: Peter urged his new converts to bear their unmerited suffering with patience, just as Christ patiently bore His sufferings for the love of all mankind.. (Peter 2:20-25)

Gospel :Our Lord Jesus, the Good Shepherd, guides us along the right paths to His house and pasture; there we receive life and have it more abundantly. (St. John 10:1-10)

REFLECTION

AMAZING GRACE

John Newton was the son of an English Sea captain. When he was only ten his mother died and he went to sea with his father. At 17 he rebelled against his father, left his ship and began living a wild life. Eventually John took a job on a cargo ship that carried slaves from Africa to America. He was promoted rapidly and soon became captain of the ship. Newton never worried whether slave trade was right or wrong. One night a violent storm blew up at sea and the waves grew to the size of mountains.

They picked up Newton's ship and threw it around like a toy. Everyone on board was filled with panic. Then Newton did something he had never done since leaving his father's ship. He prayed. Shouting at the top of his voice he said, "God, if you will only save us, I promise to be your slave forever." God heard his prayer and the ship survived. When Newton reached land, he kept his promise and quit the slave trade. Later he studied in the seminary and was ordained pastor of a small church in Olney, England. There he won fame as a preacher and composer of hymns. One of the most moving hymns Newton wrote is the one that praised God for his conversion. The words read: "Amazing grace! How sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found, was blind, but now I see..."
