4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER, YEAR A

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: This reading describes the circumstances that led to the institution of the diaconate by the Apostles and the appointment of the first deacons of the Church. (Acts 6:1-7)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 33)

“ The Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.”

Exult, you just, in the LORD; praise from the upright is fitting. Give thanks to the LORD on the harp; with the ten-stringed lyre chant his praises. Res

Upright is the word of the LORD, and all his works are trustworthy.

He loves justice and right; of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full. Res

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness, To deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. Res

Second Reading: Peter likens the Christian community, the Church, to a building whose foundation is Christ. The Church then, is the living stones of believers who are chosen, consecrated and set apart to praise God. (Peter 2:4-9)

Gospel : Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. It is through Him that we have access to God and it is through Christ alone that we can know the Father. (John 14:1-12)

LOVE MESSAGE FROM MOTY - 2016 TO ALL WOMEN

I thank our Parish Priest, Rev. Fr. Campbell, S.V.D. his Assistant Priests, the P.P.C. and all Parishioners for the honor given me as the Mother of the Year 2016.

I also thank my Team and all Parishioners who made my reign a success.

MY DEAREST MOM,

*You filled my heart with joy,
And you filled my life with love.*

You taught me how to love.

You taught me not to give up.

*You taught me words of wisdom,
And you attended to all my needs.*

You filled my world with laughter,

And you brightened up my world

You corrected my mistakes.

And challenged me to achieve my best at all times.

Though the road to perfection were sometimes painful,

They were never in vain.

I am what I am

Because of who you are. - My Dearest Mother.

Happy Mothers' Day

from:

Mrs. Adwoa Adu-Sarkodie

FAMILY CONNECTION

Members of the same family often bear close resemblances to one another. Sometimes physical resemblances are shared within a family, but often the similarities are behavioral characteristics and mannerisms. We hear this observation affirmed through a number of common phrases: "He's a chip off the old block" or "She's her mother's daughter." Today's Gospel points to a mystery of faith that might be examined in light of these familial relationships. In Jesus we see and know the Father. Likewise, the Father is known through the life and work of the Son, Jesus.

Talk together as a family about whether people outside of your family recognize common traits of your family. Are there physical resemblances that people recognize and so know each individual as a member of your family? Are there mannerisms that are shared by members of your family? What are some common interests and work that people might associate with your family? As you read today's Gospel, John 14:1-12, keep in mind that members of the same family share many characteristics, even though each person in the family is an individual. What does Jesus tell his disciples about his relationship with the Father? The relationship between the Father and Jesus is so close that Jesus says that those who have seen and known Jesus have also seen and known the Father. Jesus promises his disciples that because of their faith in him and in the Father, they too will be able to do the work of the Father as Jesus did. End your discussion by praying together that others will recognize in your family the work of the Father. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

INFANT BAPTISM PREPARATION
