THE NKONYA-ALAVANYO LAND DISPUTE IN GHANA:

LAND STRUGGLE, POWER AND THE CHALLENGES OF BELONGING

Joshua Awienagua Gariba

THE NKONYA - ALAVANYO LAND DISPUTE IN GHANA
Written by Rev. Fr. Joshua Awienagua Gariba, SVD

This book focuses on a 100yrs old dispute between the two ethnic communities of Nkonya & Alavanyo in the Volta Region, Ghana.

The first three (3) chapters highlights on the challenges of doing research in a conflict zone, the historical dynamics of the land and the socio-economic backgrounds of the two(2) communities, Nkonya and Alavanyo.

The fourth and fifth chapters examines the migration and settlement narratives, and the politicizing of the socio-cultural differences between them.

Finally a critical examination of the reasons for the conflict and suggestions on how land disputes can be resolved is what the sixth chapter looks at.

This book is a very good resource for students reading law, land economy, history, political science, sociology, anthropology and conflict and peace studies.

Parishioners are encouraged to patronise this book.

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: After Jesus' Ascension, the Apostles returned to Jerusalem, stayed and prayed together with Mary and other disciples, while they waited for the coming of the Holy Spirit. (Acts 1:12-14)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 27)

“I believe that I shall see the good things of the Lord in the land of the living.”

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear?

The LORD is my life's refuge; of whom should I be afraid? Res

One thing I ask of the LORD; this I seek: to dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, That I may gaze on the loveliness of the LORD and contemplate His temple. Res

Hear, O Lord, the sound of my call; have pity on me, and answer me.

Of you my heart speaks; you my glance seeks. Res

Second Reading: Peter encourages his converts, who suffer because they bear the name of Christ, to deem it a blessing that the Spirit of God rests upon them. (Peter 4:13-16)

Gospel : Jesus prays to the Father for His disciples whom He has made known to the Father Now they must go out into the world, so that filled with Jesus' Spirit, they will teach all nations. (John 17:1-11)
