THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD, YEAR A

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: The release of the Jews from slavery in Babylon, came as good news to Jerusalem. In a similar way, the birth of Christ brings the good news of salvation, peace and joy to a world enslaved and oppressed by sin and death.. (Is 52:7-10)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 98)

“All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God.”

Sing to the LORD a new song,
for He has done wondrous deeds;
His right hand has won victory for him,
His holy arm. Res.

The LORD has made His salvation known:
in the sight of the nations He has revealed His justice.
He has remembered His kindness and His faithfulness toward the house of Israel. Res.

All the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation by our God.
Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands;
break into song; sing praise. Res

Sing praise to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and melodious song.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn
sing joyfully before the King, the LORD. Res

Second Reading: In the past, God's message of salvation came to mankind indirectly through the prophets. Now, the Son of God Himself, Jesus Christ, who is Lord over everything that exists, speaks clearly and directly to the human race and forgives our sins. (Hebrews 1:1-6)

Gospel: God became Man in Jesus Christ and lived in this world. The world and His own people did not accept Him; but to all who did accept Him, He gave power to become children of God. (John 1:1-18)
