Date: September, 2017 | Venue: Saltpond, Central Region

Interested parishioners are to register at the Parish Office.

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: King Solomon prays to God for wisdom to discern the true value of things; not for worldly power or wealth. God rewards him for his unselfish desire to be righteous before God and the people. (Kings 3:5, 7-12)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 119)
“ Lord, I love your commands.”

I have said, O LORD, that my part is to keep your words.

The law of your mouth is to me more precious than thousands of gold and silver pieces. Res

Let your kindness comfort me according to your promise to your servants. Let your compassion come to me that I may live, for your law is my delight. Res

For I love your command more than gold, however fine. For in all your precepts I go forward; every false way I hate. Res

Wonderful are your decrees; therefore I observe them. The revelation of your words sheds light, giving understanding to the simple. Res

Second Reading: Paul tells us that if we are humble and obedient before God, then we are among those who have been called to share in the glory of Our Lord Jesus Christ. (Romans 8:28-30)

Gospel: The parables of the Treasure and the Pearl teach us that in finding Christ, the love of God and His Kingdom, we have indeed found priceless fortune. (Matthew 13:44-52)
