COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: Queen Jezebel threatened revenge on the prophet Elijah for killing the prophets of Baal. Fearing for his life, Elijah escaped to hide in a cave at Horeb, the mountain of God. (Kings 19:9, 11-13)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (PS 85)

“Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation”.

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD — for he proclaims peace. Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land. Res

Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven. Res

The LORD himself will give his benefits; our land shall yield its increase. Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps. Res

Second Reading: St. Paul was so saddened by Israel's unbelief and her rejection of Christ, that he was willing to undergo the worst possible fate possible, if only, to save his people whom he loved so dearly. (Romans 9:1-5)

Gospel: Peter walks on water towards Jesus, but not long after, he became frightened and began to sink. Immediately, he called out to Jesus, saying: "Lord, save me!" (Matthew 14:22-33)
