

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING, YEAR A

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: A person who does evil and suffers evil consequences, has himself to blame for the choices he makes but if he turns away from sin and accepts God's grace, then, he will be saved. (Ezekiel 18:25-28)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (PS 128)

“The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.”

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose. Res

Beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul. He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. Res

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Res

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come. Res

Second Reading: We must follow Christ's example of humility and selfless love that urges everyone to consider the other person to be better than himself so that no one thinks of his own interests first but the interest of the other person instead. (Philippians 2:1-11)

Gospel: In the parable, two sons make their free choice, independently, to disobey their father. However, the elder son relents and does his father bidding. The Lord teaches us that, it is never too late to turn to God and to do His will. (Matthew 21:28-32)
