FEAST OF HOLY TRINITY, YEAR B

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: Moses reminds the people of Israel about the close relationship that God has established with them and the obligations and blessings that flows from that relationship. (Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 33)

“ Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.”

Upright is the word of the LORD,
and all his works are trustworthy.
He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the Lord the earth is full. Res.

By the word of the LORD the heavens were made;
by the breath of his mouth all their host.
For he spoke, and it was made;
he commanded, and it stood forth. Res

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine. Res

Our soul waits for the LORD,
who is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you. Res

Second Reading: We are baptized in the name of the Most Holy Trinity, as a result of which we have received the spirit of sons and daughters, who are therefore privileged to call the great God of glory and majesty, our Father. (Romans 8:14-17)

Gospel: Jesus commissions His apostles to go forth and make disciples of all nations; to baptize them in the name of the Most Holy Trinity and teach them to observe all that He has commanded His apostles. (Matthew 28:16-20)

125TH ANNIVERSARY PRAYER OF THE CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF ACCRA

O Almighty and Eternal God, Divine Architect and Cornerstone of our Salvation, as we celebrate 125 years of the Catholic Mission in Accra, we give you thanks for the lives of all the early Missionaries, Priests and Lay faithful whose sacrifices have brought our Church this far.

We pray You to look with favour upon our Community of Faith, now the Catholic Archdiocese of Accra. Increase the gifts you have given to our Church so that we, your faithful People, Religious and Clergy, Women and Men, Youth and Children, may grow in holiness of life and be truly ardent disciples of Your Son, Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Inspire us anew with a greater outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and fill us with renewed zeal for the universal Church's New Evangelization mission here in our Archdiocese and beyond.

May the Holy and Triune God be our Pillar of strength, our inspiration and our guide in the years ahead! Through Christ our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!

St. Peter Claver, pray for us!

St. Martin de Porres, pray for us!

All you Holy Martyrs of Uganda pray for us!

All you Angels and Saints of God, pray for us!

THE LEGAL CORNER

with THE SOCIAL BRIDGE

DO YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO COMPEL THE HEAD OF YOUR FAMILY TO ACCOUNT FOR PROCEEDS OF FAMILY PROPERTY? PART THREE (3) - COURT AS A CHANNEL FOR REDRESS

The law gives family members the right to seek accountability from the head of family is called Head of Accountability Law, 1985 (PNDCL 114).

The law states as follows " any head of family or any person who is in possession or control of or has in his custody, any family property is to be accountable for the property to the family, and is required to " cause to be taken and filed" an inventory of the property.

Furthermore, "any member of the family who has or claims to have any beneficial interest in the property" may apply to a court for an order enforcing the duty of the family head to account. However the individual family member/applicant seeking such relief must satisfy the court that he had taken all reasonable steps to settle the matter within the family, and that all such attempts had failed.

In short, the law in Ghana empowers individual members of the family to compel the head of family to account for family property in his custody through using family grievance channels and using legal remedies under PNDCL 114.
