NATIVITY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: The speaker presents himself as one who, before his birth, was named by God to become a prophet to bring about the conversion of many in Israel. (Is 49:1-6)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 139)

“I praise you for I am wonderfully made.”

O LORD, you have probed me, you know me: you know when I sit and when I stand; you understand my thoughts from afar. My journeys and my rest you scrutinize, with all my ways you are familiar. Res

Truly you have formed my inmost being; you knit me in my mother's womb. I give you thanks that I am fearfully, wonderfully made; wonderful are your works. Res.

My soul also you knew full well; nor was my frame unknown to you When I was made in secret, when I was fashioned in the depths of the earth. Res

Second Reading: Paul tells his fellow Jews that Jesus Christ is the Saviour of the world; that Jesus' coming was announced by John who proclaimed a baptism of repentance to the people of Israel in preparation for the coming the Lord. (Acts 13:22-26)

Gospel: John's birth brought great joy to his family. His name, which means “God is Gracious”, was given by God Himself who through the archangel Gabriel announced his name even before John was conceived in the womb. (Luke 1:57-66, 80)

THE LEGAL CORNER

with THE SOCIAL BRIDGE

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR)

...continuing from last week

There are many advantages of ADR as compared to litigation;

c)ADR maintains and even improves the relationship between the parties since they are able to talk and arrive at the best solution to the problem and how to relate to each other in the future.

d)ADR processes are less costly.

- to be continued next week.
