13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: God made us for everlasting life. It was the devil's envy that brought death into the world and sought to separate us spiritually from the love of God. (Wisdom 1:13-15. 2:23-24)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 30)

"I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me."

I will extol you, O LORD, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me. O LORD, you brought me up from the netherworld; you preserved me from among those going down into the pit. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name. For his anger lasts but a moment; a lifetime, his good will. At nightfall, weeping enters in, but with the dawn, rejoicing. Res.

Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me; O LORD, be my helper. You changed my mourning into dancing; O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks. Res

Second Reading: Paul motivates the relatively rich Christian congregations to contribute towards helping those Churches whose poor had need of support. (Corinthians 8:7.9.13-15)

Gospel: Jesus, who is the source of our life, hope and healing, raises Jairus' daughter to life and cures the woman sick with a long-standing bleeding disease. (Mark 5:21-43)

THE LEGAL CORNER

with THE SOCIAL BRIDGE

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR) ...continuing from last week

There are many advantages of ADR as compared to litigation;

- ADR processes are less costly.
- ADR processes allow both parties to freely express themselves and relieves tension through dialogue.

In conclusion, as Mahatma Gandhi says, "The true function of the lawyer is to unite parties." Next time you have a dispute ask yourself or your lawyer whether the dispute can be settled amicably through ADR.
