COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: The prophet Amos is expelled from the Northern Kingdom of Israel because he criticized the ruling classes for their social injustices against the poor. (Amos 7:12-15)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 85)

“Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.”

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD —for He proclaims peace. Near indeed is His salvation to those who fear Him, glory dwelling in our land. Res

Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven. Res.

The LORD Himself will give His benefits; our land shall yield its increase. Justice shall walk before Him, and prepare the way of His steps. Res

Second Reading: God has destined us for adoption as His children through Christ, and He has chosen us to be holy and blameless before Him in love. (Ephesians 1:3-14)

Gospel: Jesus sends out His Twelve disciples on a mission to preach repentance, heal the sick and expel demons in His name. He warns them that not everyone would accept their message (Mark 6:7-13)
