COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: God commanded the prophet Elisha to feed more than one hundred people with only twenty loaves of bread. They ate and had some left over. (Kings 4:42-44)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 23)

“The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs..”

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD, and let your faithful ones bless you.

Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might. Res.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you, and you give them their food in due season; you open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. Res.

The LORD is just in all his ways and holy in all his works.

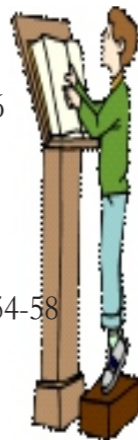

The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth. Res.

Second Reading: St. Paul encourages the Christian community to preserve unity because we show our togetherness whenever we celebrate the Eucharist. (Ephesians 4:1-6)

Gospel: Jesus takes pity on the large number of people who came to hear Him. He multiplies five loaves and two fish to feed more than five thousand people, leaving twelve baskets full of leftovers. (John 6:1-15)
