COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: Human beings are free to make choices; eating food from Wisdom's table and drinking her wine makes human beings live. On the other hand, death is the result of sharing the table of Folly. (Proverbs 9:1-6)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 34)

“Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.”

I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall be ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the LORD;
the lowly will hear me and be glad. Res.

Glorify the LORD with me,
Let us together extol his name.
I sought the LORD, and he answered me
And delivered me from all my fears. Res.

Look to him that you may be radiant with joy.
And your faces may not blush with shame.
When the afflicted man called out, the LORD heard,
And from all his distress he saved him. Res

The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him and delivers them.
Taste and see how good the LORD is;
blessed the man who takes refuge in him. Res.

Second Reading: If Christians are to benefit from the Eucharist, they should desist from leading immoral lives; instead, they should be filled with the Holy Spirit, giving thanks to God always. (Ephesians 5:15-20)

Gospel: Participation in the Holy Eucharist is our assurance of salvation because whoever eats the Body of Jesus Christ and drinks His Blood, shares in the eternal life of Christ. (St. John 6:51-58)

125TH ANNIVERSARY PRAYER OF THE CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF ACCRA

O Almighty and Eternal God, Divine Architect and Cornerstone of our Salvation, as we celebrate 125 years of the Catholic Mission in Accra, we give you thanks for the lives of all the early Missionaries, Priests and Lay faithful whose sacrifices have brought our Church this far.

We pray You to look with favour upon our Community of Faith, now the Catholic Archdiocese of Accra. Increase the gifts you have given to our Church so that we, your faithful People, Religious and Clergy, Women and Men, Youth and Children, may grow in holiness of life and be truly ardent disciples of Your Son, Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Inspire us anew with a greater outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and fill us with renewed zeal for the universal Church's New Evangelization mission here in our Archdiocese and beyond. May the Holy and Triune God be our Pillar of strength, our inspiration and our guide in the years ahead! Through Christ our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!
St. Peter Claver, pray for us!
St. Martin de Porres, pray for us!
All you Holy Martyrs of Uganda pray for us!
All you Angels and Saints of God, pray for us!

CO-OWNERSHIP OF LAND

Where two or more people become owners of the same land, it is referred to as Co-ownership of land. Here, all the co-owners are entitled to possession of the land. There are two types of co-ownership; Joint Tenancy and Tenancy in Common.

The difference between these two types is that in Joint tenancy, if one joint tenant dies, his or her share in the land passes to the surviving joint tenants/co-owners until there's only one tenant left who becomes the sole owner of the entire property. However, in Tenancy in Common, when a tenant dies his or her share in the property goes to those who inherit his or her property. And the person who inherits the deceased person's share becomes a co-owner with the other tenants in common.
