125TH ANNIVERSARY PRAYER OF THE CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF ACCRA

O Almighty and Eternal God, Divine Architect and Cornerstone of our Salvation, as we celebrate 125 years of the Catholic Mission in Accra, we give you thanks for the lives of all the early Missionaries, Priests and Lay faithful whose sacrifices have brought our Church this far.

We pray You to look with favour upon our Community of Faith, now the Catholic Archdiocese of Accra. Increase the gifts you have given to our Church so that we, your faithful People, Religious and Clergy, Women and Men, Youth and Children, may grow in holiness of life and be truly ardent disciples of Your Son, Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Inspire us anew with a greater outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and fill us with renewed zeal for the universal Church's New Evangelization mission here in our Archdiocese and beyond.

May the Holy and Triune God be our Pillar of strength, our inspiration and our guide in the years ahead! Through Christ our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

- Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!
- St. Peter Claver, pray for us!
- St. Martin de Porres, pray for us!
- All you Holy Martyrs of Uganda pray for us!
- All you Angels and Saints of God, pray for us!

THE LEGAL CORNER

with THE SOCIAL BRIDGE

Nemo Dat Quod Non Habet

This is a Latin term which means 'No one can transfer a better title than he himself has'. For instance, if a person buys goods from a seller who is not the owner of the goods and who does not have the permission or authority of the owner to do so, the buyer does not acquire a title to any of the goods he paid for. This is simply because the person who sold the goods does not own them and as such does not have the right to sell them. However there are exceptions which will be discussed in the next bulletin.

APPRECIATION

Mrs. Fati Lansah Noblet, the entire Noblet, Lansah and allied families, wish to express their deepest gratitude and thanks to Rev. Fr. Andrew Campbell, Rev. Fr. Emmanuel Appah, staff and parishioners of Christ the king Catholic Church and everyone who supported them in diverse ways to give their beloved Jean-Pierre Noblet a solemn and heart consoling burial and thanksgiving memorial. God richly bless you all.

FAMILY CONNECTION

As Christians, our moral behavior is guided by the two-part commandment taught by Jesus in today's Gospel: love God and love your neighbor as yourself. Many of us learned to use this framework as an examination of conscience. By examining our lives through the lens of these commandments, we have learned that the challenge of these commandments is not in our desire to follow them but in our capacity to consistently honor these commandments in our daily lives.

For one week, identify and collect news reports of how Christians show their love for God by loving and serving their neighbor. Clip these news items and share what you have heard when you gather as a family. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 12:28b-34. Talk about ways in which your family might contribute to the examples of Christian service you found. Choose one of these actions to do together as a family. Conclude in prayer together asking God to help us show love to our family members and friends. Pray together the Act of Love.
