7TH SUNDAY OF EASTER, YEAR C

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: This reading describes the martyrdom of Stephen. He had only recently been converted to the Christian faith and has been made a deacon by the apostles. His faith offers a vivid example of what can be done by one who is filled with the Holy Spirit. (Acts 7:55-60)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 97)

“ The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth. ”

The LORD is king; let the earth rejoice; let the many islands be glad. Justice and judgment are the foundation of his throne. Res.

The heavens proclaim his justice, and all peoples see his glory. All gods are prostrate before him. Res.

You, O LORD, are the Most High over all the earth, exalted far above all gods. Res.

Second Reading: John asserts that his prophetic words are the true revelation of Jesus Christ to His Church. The Church is wedded to Christ in the love of the Holy Spirit and looks forward to the final fulfillment of that love in the glory of heaven. (Rev.22:12-14, 16-17, 20.)

Gospel: Jesus prays for His disciples and for those who would believe through their teaching. He prays that His Church would remain united to become the sign of unity in a divided world. (John 17:20-26)
