FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI, YEAR C

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: Melchizedek, a priest-king of Salem, gives bread and wine to Abraham and professes his faith in the one true God. Christian tradition regards Melchizedek's bread and wine as prefiguring the Most Holy Eucharist.. (Genesis 14:18-20)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. PS 110)

“ You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek.”

The LORD said to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand till I make your enemies your footstool." Res.

The scepter of your power the LORD will stretch forth from Zion:

"Rule in the midst of your enemies." Res.

"Yours is princely power in the day of your birth, in holy splendor; before the daystar, like the dew, I have begotten you." Res.

The LORD has sworn, and he will not repent:

"You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek." Res.

Second Reading: The Corinthian converts did not seem to understand the meaning of the Lord's Supper during their Christian assembly. Some came in to eat their own meals while others, the poor, had nothing to eat. Paul explains the true meaning of the Eucharist to the faithful. (Corinthians 11:23-26)

Gospel: Jesus welcomes the crowd who follow Him to a lonely place. He feeds more than five thousand people in an extraordinary way. The Church continues the mission of Christ to teach, heal and nourish the people of God with the Holy Eucharist. (Luke 9:11-17)
