17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME , YEAR C

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: Abraham prayed persistently to God to save Sodom. He obtained God's guarantee that if, he, Abraham could find only ten upright men in Sodom, then God would not destroy the city. (Genesis 18:20-32)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 138)

“ He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.”

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart, for you have heard the words of my mouth; in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise; I will worship at your holy temple and give thanks to your name. Res.

Because of your kindness and your truth; for you have made great above all things your name and your promise. When I called you answered me; you built up strength within me. Res.

The LORD is exalted, yet the lowly he sees, and the proud he knows from afar. Though I walk amid distress, you preserve me; against the anger of my enemies you raise your hand. Res.

Your right hand saves me. The LORD will complete what he has done for me; your kindness, O LORD, endures forever; forsake not the work of your hands. Res

Second Reading: Paul reminds us to persevere in our living faith that is rooted in our Lord Jesus because through baptism, God brought us to life in Christ who has forgiven us our sins. (Colossians 2:12-14)

Gospel: Jesus teaches us how to pray and gives us power to address God as our 'Father'. In addition, Jesus teaches us to always persevere in prayer to God. (Luke 11:1-13)
