COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: With patience, Israel persevered in faith and never lost hope, either, in times of blessings or in periods of danger. In the end, God delivered Israel and destroyed her enemies. (Wisdom 18:6-9)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 33)

“Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.”

Exult, you just, in the LORD;
praise from the upright is fitting.
Blessed the nation whose God is the LORD,
the people he has chosen for his own inheritance. Res.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine. Res.

Our soul waits for the LORD,
who is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you. Res.

Second Reading: By faith Abraham left his homeland not knowing where he was going. His faith in God made his journey meaningful, for, he inherited the things God had promised in a better homeland which is heaven. (Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19)

Gospel: The life of a disciple must be one of continual watchful preparedness; always ready to serve. As for leaders, their privileges and responsibilities are greater but so will be their punishment for unfaithfulness.. (Luke 12:32-48)
