24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME , YEAR C

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: While Moses was receiving God's Commandments on Mount Sinai the people of Israel made and worshipped a golden calf which they claimed freed them from slavery. Fearing God's anger, Moses interceded for them and God, being merciful, forgave their sins. (Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 51)

“I will rise and go to my father”

Have mercy on me, O God, in your goodness; in the greatness of your compassion wipe out my offense. Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me.. Res.

A clean heart create for me, O God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me. Cast me not out from your presence, and your Holy Spirit take not from me Res.

O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth shall proclaim your praise. My sacrifice, O God, is a contrite spirit; a heart contrite and humbled, O God, you will not spurn. Res.

Second Reading: Paul referred to himself as a former sinner whose sins God forgave through the merits of Christ's death on the cross. Paul was grateful for God's mercy as all sinners should be. (Paul to Timothy 1:12-17)

Gospel: Today we hear three parables about the mercy of God; the parables of the “Lost Sheep”, the “Lost Coin” and the “Prodigal Son” - also known as the parable of the “Merciful Father”. (Luke 15:1-32)
