COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: The Prophet Amos describes the extravagant lifestyles of the rich rulers of Israel and Judah who did not care, while the poor suffered all around them. Their days of luxury ended when the rulers were captured and taken into exile. (Amos 6:1, 4-7)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 146)

“ I will rise and go to my father”

Blessed is he who keeps faith forever,
secures justice for the oppressed,
gives food to the hungry.
The LORD sets captives free.. Res.

The LORD gives sight to the blind;
the LORD raises up those who were bowed down.
The LORD loves the just;
the LORD protects strangers Res.

The fatherless and the widow he sustains,
but the way of the wicked he thwarts.
The LORD shall reign forever;
your God, O Zion, through all generations. Alleluia. Res.

Second Reading: Paul reminds Timothy about his baptism, when he professed his faith and spoke the truth in front of many witnesses, with the aim to practice those virtues that make for gaining eternal life. (Timothy 6:11-16)

Gospel: A rich man who was totally insensitive to the needs of the less fortunate around him, died and lost his soul on account of his selfishness and lack of charity towards the poor. (Luke 16:19-31)
