29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME , YEAR C

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: When Amalek attacked Israel on their way to the Promised Land, Moses raised his arms in prayer to God all day to intercede for his people. God mercifully answered Moses' prayer and granted total victory to Israel. (17:8-13)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 121)

“ Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.”

I lift up my eyes toward the mountains; whence shall help come to me? My help is from the LORD, who made heaven and earth. Res.

May he not suffer your foot to slip; may he slumber not who guards you: indeed he neither slumbers nor sleeps, the guardian of Israel. Res.

The LORD is your guardian; the LORD is your shade; he is beside you at your right hand. The sun shall not harm you by day, nor the moon by night. Res.

The LORD will guard you from all evil; he will guard your life. The LORD will guard your coming and your going, both now and forever. Res.

Second Reading: Paul urged Timothy to remain faithful to the scriptures which he had learned since his childhood, and had believed the same to be true wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Jesus Christ. (Timothy 3:14-4:2)

Gospel: In the parable of the unscrupulous judge, a widow harassed the judge persistently until she obtained justice from him. In the same way, Christians are urged to pray constantly with perseverance. (Luke 18:1-8)

PRAYER OF POPE FRANCIS FOR THE EXTRAORDINARY MISSIONARY MONTH (OCTOBER 2019)

God our Heavenly Father, when your only begotten Son Jesus Christ rose from the dead, he commissioned his followers to "go and make disciples of all nations" and you remind us that through our Baptism we are made sharers in the mission of the Church.

Empower us by the gifts of the Holy Spirit to be courageous and zealous in bearing witness to the Gospel, so that the mission entrusted to the Church, which is still very far from completion, may find new and efficacious expressions that bring life and light to the world.

Help us make it possible for all peoples to experience the saving love and mercy of Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen.
