3RD SUNDAY IN ORD. TIME, YEAR A

COMMENTARY ON READINGS

First Reading: The two Jewish tribes of Zabulon and Nephtali had been oppressed by a foreign power and been exiled. The prophet predicts future glory for the people for whom light will overcome darkness; freedom overpower oppression and joy replace sorrow.

(Isaiah 8:23 – 9:3)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 24)

“Who is this king of glory? It is the Lord!”

Lift up, O gates, your lintels;
reach up, you ancient portals,
that the king of glory may come in! Res.

Who is this king of glory?
The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle. Res.

Lift up, O gates, your lintels;
reach up, you ancient portals,
that the king of glory may come in! Res.

Who is this king of glory?
The LORD of hosts; he is the king of glory. Res.

Second Reading: There were factions and divisions among the early Christians. Paul rebukes their partisan behavior reminds them that whether the teacher is Peter, Apollos or Paul, are all servants of the same Jesus Christ who alone grants salvation. (Corinthians 1:10-13, 17)

Gospel: Isaiah’s prophecy we have just heard in the first reading is fulfilled in the Gospel. Christ is the Light of the World. His Good News is like a beacon whose light draws people irresistibly to Him as happened to Peter and Andrew, James and John, who became His disciples. (Matthew 4:12-23)

PRAYER FOR VOCATION

Lord, we thank you for the gift of the early missionaries who brought the faith to us. We thank you for the gift of many men and women around the globe who generously answered your call to spread the Gospel in different parts of the world. Indeed the harvest is plenty, but the labourers are few. Lord, grant us ever more increase in vocation to the priesthood and religious life. Awaken in us a generous heart in contributing to the support of the Mission. May we share generously what we have from one end of the earth to the other. Through the Gospel, may all men and women come to the knowledge of the truth and salvation. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady Queen of Mission, pray for us

Ss. Peter and Paul the Apostles, Pray for us

St. Theresa of the Child Jesus, Pray for us

St. Mary John Vianney, Pray for us

Martyrs of Uganda, Pray for us
