

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAYER FOR VOCATION

Lord, we thank you for the gift of the early missionaries who brought the faith to us. We thank you for the gift of many men and women around the globe who generously answered your call to spread the Gospel in different parts of the world.

Indeed the harvest is plenty, but the labourers are few. Lord, grant us ever more increase in vocation to the priesthood and religious life. Awaken in us a generous heart in contributing to the support of the Mission. May we share generously what we have from one end of the earth to the other.

Through the Gospel, may all men and women come to the knowledge of the truth and salvation. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

*Our Lady Queen of Mission, pray for us

BAPTISM OF THE LORD, YEAR B

First Reading: The prophet foretells that the promised Messiah would be God's chosen servant who will bring forth justice, not only to Jews, but also, to all nations. (Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (PS 97)
 "Let all his angels worship Him."

Give to the LORD, you sons of God,
 give to the LORD glory and praise,
 Give to the LORD the glory due his name;
 adore the LORD in holy attire. Res

The voice of the LORD is over the waters,
 the LORD, over vast waters.
 The voice of the LORD is mighty;
 the voice of the LORD is majestic. Res

The God of glory thunders, and in his temple all say, "Glory!"
 The LORD is enthroned above the flood;
 the LORD is enthroned as king forever. Res

Second Reading: Peter preached the Good News about Jesus to Cornelius and his family. He gave them instruction about baptism and the entire family was baptized. (Acts 10:34-38)

Gospel: John the Baptist baptised Jesus in the River Jordan and that event marked the beginning of Jesus' mission when His true identity was revealed. (Matthew 3:13-17)

Remember

....what is most important

It's not having everything go right;
 it's facing whatever goes wrong.
 It's not being without fear;
 it's having the determination to go on
 in spite of it.
 It's not where you stand but the direction you are going in.
 Remember to live just this one day and not add tomorrow's troubles to today's load.
 Remember that everyday ends and brings a new tomorrow full of exciting new things.
 Love what you do, do the best you can, and always remember how much you are loved.

TODAY'S REFLECTION

Today we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. In most years, this feast is celebrated on the Sunday after Epiphany. When Epiphany falls on either January 7 or 8, the Baptism of the Lord is celebrated on the Monday after Epiphany.

In today's Gospel we hear John the Baptist contrast his baptism of repentance with the baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John the Baptist says that he has baptized with water, but that the one who is to come will baptize with the Holy Spirit. John's baptism was not yet a Christian baptism; it was a preparation for the Christian Baptism we celebrate today, and through which sins are forgiven and the gift of the Holy Spirit is received. In accepting John's baptism, Jesus, though sinless, united himself with all sinners.

The baptism of Jesus is reported in each of the three Synoptic Gospels—Matthew, Mark, and Luke. Clearly, Jesus' baptism was an event of great significance for Jesus and for the early Christian community. Mark and Luke report the story from Jesus' perspective; the voice from heaven is addressed to Jesus. In Matthew's Gospel, the voice from heaven speaks to all who are present. The descent of the Holy Spirit on Jesus at his baptism shows that something new is beginning through the baptism and ministry of Jesus.

The baptism of Jesus is considered an important manifestation of God in the person of Jesus, another epiphany. Jesus' baptism inaugurates his mission. Mark's Gospel moves quickly from the report of Jesus' baptism to Jesus' temptations in the desert to his ministry in Galilee after John's arrest. The end of the ministry of John the Baptist is the beginning of Jesus' ministry. In an analogous way, our Baptism inaugurates our mission as Christians.

Surprisingly, on this the last day of the Christmas season the Gospel does not tell a story from Jesus' childhood. Instead the Gospel reveals Jesus' relationship to God: the Son of Mary and Joseph is also God's own Son. We believe that through Baptism we are also made children of God.
