4TH SUNDAY EASTER, YEAR B

First Reading: Peter was arrested by angry Jewish leaders for having cured a cripple. He asserted that the cripple was saved in the name of Jesus; the only name in the world by which we can be saved. (Acts 4:8-12)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 118)

“The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.”

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.
It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in man.
It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in princes. Res

I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me
and have been my savior.
The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes. Res

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD;
we bless you from the house of the LORD.
I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me
and have been my savior.
Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
for his kindness endures forever. Res

Second Reading: John reminds us to think of the great love that God the Father has lavished upon us by letting us be called God's children. (John 3:1 & 2)

Gospel: Jesus our Good Shepherd laid down His life to save us because of His great love for us. For this reason, we should not turn somewhere else, to a hired hand, who will let us down when we need help most. (John 10:11-18)

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

The Good Shepherd makes sacrifices for the sheep not because it is required, but because it is a choice. That sounds a lot like parenting and the dynamics of a healthy family life. Parents choose to make sacrifices for their children out of love, not obligation. Christian parents model and invite their children to choose to make sacrifices for other family members and for other people, acting out of love rather than obligation.

When you gather as a family, invite each family member to consider the attitude that permeates their participation in family life. Read a common examen, such as any of the following: Do we do family chores cheerfully and without having to be asked multiple times? Do we gladly share with others? Do we willingly contribute to the family good when asked? Read aloud today's Gospel, John 10:11-18. Discuss together how the example of the Good Shepherd might inspire your family life. Invite each family member to make a renewed commitment to one action/attitude to focus on in the upcoming week that show that we will choose to follow the example of the Good Shepherd. Pray together that we will be able to honor our commitment.

Pray together Saint Ignatius of Loyola's Prayer for Generosity.
