EASTER SUNDAY YEAR B

First Reading: Peter tells the people that he was witness to the life, death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus. He asserts that the risen Christ is Lord and Savior of all believers, as well as Judge of all the living and the dead. (Acts 10:37-43)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 118)

“This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad..”

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever. Let the house of Israel say, "His mercy endures forever." Res

"The right hand of the LORD has struck with power; the right hand of the LORD is exalted. I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD." Res

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes. Res

Second Reading: St. Paul exhorts Christians to celebrate Easter, the New Passover, by getting rid of the corrupting influence of evil and wickedness, but instead, they should celebrate Christ's redeeming sacrifice with a new life of sincerity and truth. (Corinthians 5:6b-8)

Gospel: When the apostles heard on Easter morning that Jesus' tomb was vacant, Peter and John hurried to confirm the story. On seeing the empty tomb, they understood what the scriptures had foretold concerning the resurrection of Christ. (John 20:1-9)
