GIVE BLOOD GIVE LIFE

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

One of the greatest gifts that we are given in our family life is protection from harm. Families work together to keep one another safe from physical harm. Think of the effort a family makes to childproof its home for infants and toddlers. Families also work together to protect each other from emotional harm. For example, we attend to the ways in which family members talk to one another so that we do not hurt one another's feelings by our words. Most importantly, families work together to protect each other from those things that might harm them spiritually. We shield our children from those things in our culture that might tempt them. When families work together to strengthen their sense of God and community, they build the spiritual strength to turn from those things that would lead them away from God and the Church. Jesus' prayer for his disciples can also be a prayer for family life.

Gather as a family and talk about the things that you want most for each other. Talk about the fact that as we work toward these things, we also work to protect one another from harmful things. What do you want to protect each other from? Observe that in today's Gospel, Jesus shows these same two tendencies as he prays for something he wants for his disciples and prays for their protection as well. Read together today's Gospel, John 17:11b-19. Consider what Jesus wants for his disciples and what Jesus wants to protect his disciples from. We know that when Jesus prayed for his disciples, he was praying for us as well. We pray for these things as well, for example, when we pray the Lord's Prayer. Conclude by praying together the Lord's Prayer.

7TH SUNDAY EASTER, YEAR B

First Reading: Under Peter's leadership and guided by the Holy Spirit, the Christian community elected Matthias to join the College of Apostles. He replaced Judas, who by his betrayal, deserted the group. (Acts 1:15-17, 20-26)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 103)

“The Lord has set his throne in heaven..”

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all my being, bless his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits. Res

For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him.
As far as the east is from the west,
so far has he put our transgressions from us. Res

The LORD has established his throne in heaven, and his kingdom rules over all.
Bless the LORD, all you his angels,
you mighty in strength, who do his bidding. Res

Second Reading: John teaches that as long as we love one another God will live in us. It is this love of God and our love for one another that keeps the Christian community together. (1 John 4:11-16)

Gospel: Jesus consecrates His apostles for their mission in the world. He prays that they will remain united in Him and He invokes God's protection for them against the evil one. (John 17:11b-19)
