14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

First Reading: The people of Israel rebel against God and would not heed His word. God commands the prophet to preach His message to them whether the people would listen or not. (Ezekiel 2:2-5)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 123)

“Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.”

To you I lift up my eyes
who are enthroned in heaven —
As the eyes of servants
are on the hands of their masters. Res

As the eyes of a maid
are on the hands of her mistress,
So are our eyes on the LORD, our God,
till he have pity on us. Res

Have pity on us, O LORD, have pity on us,
for we are more than sated with contempt;
our souls are more than sated
with the mockery of the arrogant,
with the contempt of the proud. Res

Second Reading: In humble obedience to Christ, Paul prays that through suffering in his human weakness, the grace and power of Christ may stay over him. (Corinthians 12:7-10)

Gospel: Jesus is shown as being unable to accomplish much in His hometown, Nazareth, because of the people's lack of faith. (Mark 6:1-6)
