16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

First Reading: The prophet attributes the misfortunes that affected Israel to failure of her leaders. He foresees the coming of the ideal King who shall govern wisely and with justice so that the people will live securely and in peace. (Jeremiah 23:1-6)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 23)

“The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.”

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul. Res.

He guides me in right paths
for His name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage. Res

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows. Res.

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.. Res

Second Reading: By shedding His blood on the cross, Christ has united both Jews and Gentiles into His one Mystical Body and, in so doing, He has saved all peoples without discrimination. (Ephesians 2:13-18)

Gospel: Jesus took pity on the large crowd of people who came out to meet Him because they were like sheep without a shepherd and so He set out to teach them at length about the love of God. (Mark 6:30-34)

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

Family demands can make us feel like Jesus and the twelve apostles. We wish for times of relaxation and renewal, but there are errands to do, household chores to keep up with, volunteer commitments to keep. These are all good things, but we can be left feeling drained and tired as we try to keep up. Perhaps we might take the opportunity this week to give ourselves permission to find the rest and relaxation that Jesus seeks for his disciples in today's Gospel. One of the gifts we can give to one another in our family life is assistance in finding the time and space to renew ourselves through prayer.

When you gather together as a family this week, bring your family calendar. Together review your family calendar and spend some time reflecting on your family activities. In particular, ask if your family has an appropriate amount of time for rest and relaxation. If not, discuss ways in which this time for renewal might be included in the week ahead. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 6:30-34. Notice how Jesus tried to find time and space for his disciples to rest and relax after they returned from their mission. Conclude in prayer together, asking God to help us find time to renew ourselves so that we might be better disciples of Jesus.

Pray together the Lord's Prayer.
