22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

First Reading: Moses urged the people of Israel to keep the integrity of God's Laws and be careful not to add to, or subtract from them. (Deut 4:1-2, 6-8)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 15)

“The one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.”

Whoever walks blamelessly and does justice; who thinks the truth in his heart and slanders not with his tongue. Res.

Who harms not his fellow man, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbor; by whom the reprobate is despised, while he honors those who fear the LORD. Res.

Who lends not his money at usury and accepts no bribe against the innocent. Whoever does these things shall never be disturbed. Res.

Second Reading: We must do what God's word tells us to do but not just pretend to listen to it and deceive ourselves. (James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27)

Gospel: Jesus distinguishes true religion from human customs. He blames the Pharisees for having done away with God's Laws and instead added their own hypocritical human rules. (Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23)

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

Children have learned the importance of following rules. Like the Pharisees in today's Gospel, they often bring to our attention the infractions of others. Even parents sometimes get caught off guard by their children's observations: "Why don't you have to go to bed at 8:00?" or "But I saw you eat a cupcake before breakfast once." Our rules for our children are not arbitrary. We establish and enforce family rules with the intention of helping our children grow to be healthy and mature adults. We foster this maturity when we also initiate conversations with our children about the purposes behind family rules and teach them the essential values that rules help us observe.

As you gather as a family, list some of your most important family rules. Together, try to write a single, positive statement that captures the essential value behind your family rules. In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus criticize the Pharisees for making their rules about ritual purity equal to the commandments of God's Law. Read today's Gospel, Mark 7:1-8,14-15,21-23. When we remember the essential element behind our rules, we see that our rules help us be the good people that Jesus wants us to be.

Conclude in prayer together that we may always honor God's Law in our words and deeds. Pray together today's psalm, Psalm 15.

TUESDAY TEACHING RECAP

9th Article of Faith Pt 2 - "I Believe in the Holy Catholic Church" - Rev. Fr. Ebenezer Akesseh

THE 4 MARKS OF THE CHURCH

1. The Church is one:- Has her source in the Trinity.- Jesus as her founder who unites all in one body.- The Holy Spirit as her soul.- One faith, one sacramental life, one common hope.

The Church is Holy:- Most Holy God is the author.- Christ gave himself to sanctify her.- A means of Salvation.- The numerous Saints are among her members.- The Church is holy but has members who are sinners in need of purification.

The Church is Catholic:- Universal- sent out on a mission to the whole world (Mt 28:19-20)- particular churches in communion and united by apostolic succession.

The Church is Apostolic:- Built on the foundation of the Apostles (Eph 5:20)- Apostolic Succession by means of the sacrament of Holy orders.- Keep handing over the original teaching from generation to generation.
