23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

First Reading: The release of Israel from bondage and their return from exile, is a joyous manifestation of God's mercy and His redemptive presence for everyone without distinction. (Isaiah 35:4-7)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 119) "Lord, I love your commands"

How I love your law, O LORD!
It is my meditation all the day. Res.

Your command has made me wiser than my enemies,
for it is ever with me. Res.

I have more understanding than all my teachers when your decrees are my meditation. Res.

I have more discernment than the elders,
because I observe your precepts. Res.

From every evil way I withhold my feet,
that I may keep your words. Res.

From your ordinances I turn not away,
for you have instructed me. Res.

Second Reading: St. James insists that the Christian community must not favor anyone on the grounds of wealth or position, nor discriminate against other persons by reason of poverty. (James 2:1-5)

Gospel: Jesus cures a deaf-mute and, in this way, He shows God's mercy, love, and healing presence among us, who are spiritually deaf to His word. (Mark 7:31-37)

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

Today's Gospel invites us to consider how we witness the healing presence of Christ in our care for and ministry to those who are sick. We notice that the deaf man is brought to Jesus for healing by his friends. These people beg Jesus to lay his hands on this deaf man so that he might be healed. Jesus' healing power is shown in his opening of the man's ears and the restoring of his speech. When family members care for one another when they are sick, they bring Christ's healing presence. When we pray for those who are ill, we ask God to show his healing power. When health is restored, we share that good news with others.

As you gather as a family, recall a time when a family member was ill. What steps were taken to help restore this family member to health? Talk about what it feels like to care for a person who is ill, and about how it feels to be the sick person being cared for. In today's Gospel, we hear about a time when Jesus healed a man who was deaf. Read today's Gospel, Mark 7:31-37. Notice how the man who was cured and his friends could not honor Jesus' request to keep quiet about Jesus' power to heal. We continue to celebrate Jesus' healing presence in our lives by giving thanks to God for the gift of healing and health.

Conclude in prayer, thanking Jesus for the gifts of health and healing. Pray together for those who are sick. After each person is named, pray, "Jesus, heal us."

TUESDAY TEACHING RECAP

TOPIC: THE 10TH ARTICLE OF FAITH (Believe in the Communion of Saints) - Rev. Fr. Ebenezer Akesseh

The expression means two main facts:

1. Communion in holy things;

also referred to as communion of spiritual goods from which all the faithfuls benefit. (Acts 4:32). There are four main aspects;

- Common Faith
- Communion of Charisms
- Sacraments especially the Eucharist
- Charity (communion of love).

2. Communion among holy persons:

(2 Mac 12:41ff, 1 Cor 12)

There are three stages of the Church

*The Church militant / Pilgrim Church

- The pilgrim church on earth

*The Church suffering

- Those in Purgatory undergoing purification

*The Church triumphant

- Those seeing God face to face in Heaven and enjoying in His glory.

It also reminds us of ;

- The Communion we have with the dead
- The Communion we have with the saints
- The intercession of the saints
