24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

First Reading: God's Servant suffers greatly, although he is innocent, but he is sustained in all his trials by his steadfast faith that God will finally justify him. (Isaiah 50:5-9)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 116)

"I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living"

I love the LORD because he has heard my voice in supplication, because He has inclined His ear to me the day I called. Res.

The cords of death encompassed me; the snares of the netherworld seized upon me; I fell into distress and sorrow, and I called upon the name of the LORD, "O LORD, save my life!" Res.

Gracious is the LORD and just; yes, our God is merciful. The LORD keeps the little ones; I was brought low, and He saved me. Res.

For He has freed my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling. I shall walk before the Lord in the land of the living. Res.

Second Reading: St. James tells us that faith without good works is dead; it is by doing something good, and not merely believing, that a Christian is justified. (James 2:14-18)

Gospel: Peter professes his firm faith in Jesus as the Son of God but he fails to understand that following Christ entails much suffering as well. (Mark 8:27-35)
