25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

First Reading: On leading virtuous life and avoiding evil, one may incur displeasure from people driven by envy, hatred, and cruelty. (Wisdom 2:12, 17-20)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 54)

“The Lord upholds my life.”

O God, by your name save me,
and by your might defend my cause.
O God, hear my prayer;
hearken to the words of my mouth. Res

For the haughty men have risen up against me,
the ruthless seek my life;
they set not God before their eyes. Res.

Behold, God is my helper,
the Lord sustains my life.
Freely will I offer you sacrifice;
I will praise your name, O LORD, for its goodness.
Res.

Second Reading: Disharmony and wickedness exist wherever there is jealousy and ambition; whereas wisdom that comes from God is peaceful, kind and full of compassion. (James 3:16-4:3)

Gospel: Jesus foretells His suffering and death and He teaches His followers that true greatness lies in humility. (Mark 9:30-37)

Nm 11:25-29/Ps 19/Jas 5:1-6 /Mk 9:38-43. 45. 47-48

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

Conversations such as the one described in today's Gospel are common in family life. Perhaps these examples are familiar: “I should get the first piece of cake because I am the youngest;” “I did the dishes yesterday; someone else should do them today.” How might we respond if Jesus asked about our family arguments? What would Jesus say to us in reply? All of us need the reminder found in today's Gospel: To be great in God's Kingdom is to be the servant of all.

As you gather as a family, recall a recent family argument about household chores or an example of bickering among family members. Talk about what was at issue in the argument. Together imagine that Jesus entered the room just as the argument ended.

What would you tell Jesus your argument was about? What might Jesus say in reply? Read together today's Gospel, Mark 9:30-37.

How was your family argument like the argument among Jesus' disciples? What might your family do to remember that those who are great in God's kingdom are those who willingly serve others?

Pray together that your family life will reflect your commitment to serve one another with love.
