26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B THE FAMILY CONNECTION

First Reading: God's spiritual gifts are not limited to a group of people only, but they are intended for all who believe in God. (Num 11:25-29)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 54)

"The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart."

The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul; the decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple. Res.

The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the LORD are true, all of them just. Res

Though your servant is careful of them, very diligent in keeping them, yet who can detect failings? Cleanse me from my unknown faults! Res.

From wanton sin especially, restrain your servant; let it not rule over me. Then shall I be blameless and innocent of serious sin. Res.

Second Reading: James condemns the greed and injustice that make people deprive others of what is their due. (James 5:1-6)

Gospel: Spiritual gifts are not meant for Christians only, but they are manifest, also, by the good deeds of people we may meet outside the Church. (Mark 9:38-43,45, 47-48)

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B
Gen 2:18-24/Ps 128/Heb 2:9-11 /Mk 10:2-16

The second part of today's Gospel contains a strong message for those who share the responsibility of fostering faith. It is indeed an awesome responsibility. Today's Gospel reminds us that faith is a lifelong journey toward God. We don't always get it all or even get it right. But we pray for the grace to acknowledge and build upon even the smallest signs of faith, in ourselves and in others. There are plenty of obstacles that might prevent the growth of faith. Let us pray that we are not contributing to the obstacles that might hinder another person's faith in Jesus.

As you gather as a family, observe that there are things in our lives that nurture our faith and things that can hinder it. Talk about some of the things that nurture our faith—healthy family relationships, healthy friendships, good literature, and so on. Name some of the things that might be an obstacle to faith—unhealthy relationships, scandals, and so on. Observe that Jesus teaches us in today's Gospel that we are to do everything we can to help one another have faith in Jesus and do all that we can to avoid creating obstacles that might hinder another person's faith. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 9:38-43,45,47-48.

Conclude by praying together that we will be a family that helps each other grow in faith. Pray together today's psalm, Psalm 19, or the Lord's Prayer.
