27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

First Reading: To answer man's need for companionship, intimacy and love, God instituted marriage and intended man and woman to become one in the marital state. (Gen 2:18-24)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 128)

"May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives."

Blessed are you who fear the LORD,
who walk in his ways!
For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork;
blessed shall you be, and favored. Res

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
in the recesses of your home;
your children like olive plants
around your table. Res

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.
The LORD bless you from Zion:
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life. Res

May you see your children's children.
Peace be upon Israel! Res.

Second Reading: God crowned Jesus with glory because by His death on the cross, Jesus was made perfect through suffering to identify with us and lead us to our salvation (Hebrew 2:9-11)

Gospel: Jesus clearly teaches that the marriage bond is permanently binding; and anyone who does not accept the kingdom of God with childlike trust will not enter it. (Mark 10:2-16)

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

Jesus' teaching about divorce and remarriage can be a challenging one for many people. The Church continues to uphold the strong and positive teaching of Jesus that God intends for a man and woman to make a lifelong commitment to one another in the Sacrament of Marriage. Many of us, however, know people whose marriage has not been a lifelong commitment. The example of Jesus teaches us that we are called to act with compassion and love in our relationships with all, and especially when people are hurting because of difficulties in their relationships. Most importantly, we remember that when marriages thrive, it is a sign of God's grace at work.

As you gather as a family, talk about what it means to make a promise or a commitment to someone. Offer examples of promises that are fairly easy to keep. Read today's Gospel, Mark 10:2-16. Talk about examples of promises and commitments that might be more difficult to honor, like the marriage commitment that Jesus is asked about in this Gospel. Talk about how we need God to help us honor our commitment to love and care for each other. Jesus teaches that we should be like children before God, trusting God's promise to care for us and asking for his help to keep our commitments to love and care for others. Conclude by praying together that God will give his grace to us that we may honor our commitments to one another. Pray together Saint Ignatius of Loyola's prayer, the Suscipe.
