30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

First Reading: The prophet foretells God's mercy and love in the forthcoming release of Israel from slavery and their joyous return home from exile. (Jeremiah 31:7-9)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 33)

“The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.”

When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion,
we were like men dreaming.
Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with rejoicing. Res.

Then they said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."
The LORD has done great things for us;
we are glad indeed. Res.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD,
like the torrents in the southern desert.
Those that sow in tears
shall reap rejoicing. Res.

Although they go forth weeping,
carrying the seed to be sown,
They shall come back rejoicing,
carrying their sheaves. Res.

Second Reading: The Eternal Father conferred the glory of High Priesthood on Christ at the time of His Incarnation, when He became the divine mediator between God and mankind. (Hebrews 5:1-6)

Gospel: Jesus cures Bartimeus, the blind man, and shows God's love, His mercy and healing presence among us who are often spiritually blind to His word. (Mark 10:46-52)

FIVE (5) REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD PRAY THE ROSARY

3) TIME TO REFLECT ON THE GOSPEL MYSTERIES

The rosary consists of the Apostle's Creed, the Hail Mary, the Our Father, the Glory Be, along with other prayers. However, in between each decade, we are invited to reflect on the Mysteries of the Gospel: Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious, and Luminous.

In these mysteries, we rediscover, examine, and ponder the stories from the Gospel, and discover the real meaning of those events in the silence of our hearts.

4) SPIRITUAL HEALING

And speaking of silence, another purpose of praying the rosary is to allow the repetition of the prayers enter into the silence of our hearts, where Christ's spirit dwells.

It is in that silence, we become more connected with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Not only that, but Jesus reveals to us that "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind."

But to do so, we must make time for Him. The rosary is the perfect way to make time to connect with God, and for spiritual healing. Take 15 minutes a day to be one with Him.

APPRECIATION

The Children and entire family of the late Mrs. Regina Akua Quarshie, mother of Mr. Joseph Quarshie, a parishioner, are immensely grateful to you for your prayers, words of encouragement and donations during our bereavement. May the good Lord bless you all.

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

Today's Gospel offers us a powerful example of faith and persistence in prayer. Those around him rebuked Bartimaeus for his efforts to attract Jesus' attention. When silenced by the crowd, however, Bartimaeus called out all the more. He is persistent and bold in his confidence that Jesus will show mercy on him and do what he asks. His persistence and great confidence that Jesus would help him reminds us of the confidence with which our children bring to us their needs. In their faith and trust we can find an example of the attitude with which we might approach God in prayer.

As a family, recall a request that has been made repeatedly by one family member to another. Talk about why the request continues to be made if the answer continues to be no. Then read together today's Gospel, Mark 10:46-52. After reading the Gospel, pose questions such as these to your family: Why must Bartimaeus be persistent in calling out to Jesus? (Some people in the crowd are telling him to be quiet.)

What does Bartimaeus do when some try to stop him? (He calls out to Jesus all the more.) When Jesus stops and calls for him, what does Jesus do and say? (He restores Bartimaeus's sight; Jesus tells Bartimaeus his faith has saved him.) When we pray, God wants us to be so confident he will help us that we shouldn't permit anyone to keep us from bringing our needs to God in prayer. Invite family members to identify the things they need most from God. Pray these prayers of petition together as a family, confident that God will hear and answer your prayers.

Respond to each petition, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on us." Conclude by praying the Glory Be to the Father.

NO EVENING MASS ON TUESDAY

Due to the Rosary prayers and Catechetical talks next week, there will be no Evening Mass and Teaching on Tuesday 26th October, 2021.

NOVEMBER LIST FOR THE DEAD

The Month of November is a month dedicated for praying for the dead. There will be an intent box on the Sanctuary from 1st - 30th November. Parishioners can drop the list of their dead relative and friends in the box accompanied with an intention or prayer. At each Mass, our dead relatives will be prayed for. The month will be climaxed with burning of all list and intentions.
