33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

First Reading: The Prophet foresees the general resurrection of the dead when some will rise to everlasting glory and others to eternal disgrace. (Daniel 12:1-3)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps. 16)
You are my inheritance, O Lord!

O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you it is who hold fast my lot.
I set the LORD ever before me;
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Res.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices,
my body, too, abides in confidence;
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,
nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption. Res.

You will show me the path to life,
fullness of joys in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever. Res.

Second Reading: By His death on Calvary, Christ has offered the one single sacrifice for sins and has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom He is sanctifying. (Hebrew 10:11-14, 18)

Gospel: Jesus predicts times of suffering in the Church but assures His followers that the final achievement of God's saving purpose cannot be frustrated by human beings. (Mark 13:24-32)
